FRUIT OF THE LOOM.

Men and women of taste and judgment go into ecstasies over the wonderful pattern, texture and colors which are the fruit of the loom. But there is one fruit of the loom they rarely consider, and that is the frail and faded woman, old before her time, because necessity compels her to work under conditions, which send her more favored sister to bed and the doctor's care.

The diseases which weaken and torment women, may in almost all cases be cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 828 East College Street, Jacksonville, Ill. "Words cannot express what I suffered. I sought relief upon the medical profession and found none. Friends urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. Now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds more than I ever weighed before. I was so old I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pain, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which women wonder for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

Nasal Catarrh

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Place the balm in the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50 cents at druggists or by mail; trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 50 Warren Street, New York.

Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

Dr. W. F. HUTCHINSON, Dentist, Corner Prince and Washington Streets, Office Formerly Occupied by Dr. Fawcett.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea, in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

AROSE FROM GRAVE.

Yesterday morning, at Waverly, near Baltimore, it was found that a man very much alive was buried in the yard surrounding St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, where are erected monuments and tombstones over the graves of many members of the parish who have died in recent years. The discovery of the live "corpse" was made by John Hinkel, sexton of the church. Hinkel visited the newly made grave, prepared for the reception of the body of Mrs. Ella Prince, wife of Wm. A. Prince, who died last Thursday. Her funeral took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When the sexton went to make sure that everything was in readiness for the burial, he was astonished to find an unusual condition of affairs at the grave. As he raised the top of the box, which was covered with about 200 pounds of stone and earth, to his horror and amazement a human form clad in a shroud of white, arose and came forth as though risen from the dead. Sexton Hinkel was frightened, but he is a man of courage and as the uneasy inhabitant of the grave stepped forth he seized him and held him until policemen arrived. There were others near by and soon the policemen had their prisoner in the northern district patrol wagon and took him to the station house. He had with him a satchel containing a curious collection of death robes. He said his name was John M. Badollet, and that he was from Wilmington, Del., his home being at 512 King Street, that city. He acknowledged also that he had buried himself. He said he had seen an account of a burial in a morning newspaper that was to take place in the graveyard of St. John's Church Sunday afternoon. When found by Sexton Hinkel the "live corpse" was attired in a long shroud, which bore the inscription in printed letters: "J. Bernard, N. G."

Under this was a cross bearing the inscription: "James M. Bernard," and under that the further inscription: "October 4, 1852, May 11, 1902," and "1902, another boy." Badollet made the following statement: "I was born in Switzerland on October 4, 1852, and have been in this country about fifteen years. I am, by trade, a watchmaker and typewriter machine maker. The last time I buried myself was at Bristol, Pa., May 11, 1902."

THE LONELY CZARINA.

The Czarina of Russia has been a victim of a profound and growing melancholy since her hope of becoming a mother again was dashed two months ago. To add to her despair, a noted physician of Vienna, who has made a study of her ancestors, has reported that for some hundreds of years the women of her stock have been greatly in the preponderance; that the mothers have had families composed chiefly of daughters. The Czarina suffers alternately from transports of joy not less painful or disquieting than the profound melancholy which follows them, it is reported. The case is a very difficult one, and specialists in St. Petersburg shake their heads over it.

The Czar, whose marriage with Princess Alix was a real love match, is not only greatly distressed over his cherished wife's condition, but is exceedingly anxious about his brother, the heir presumptive, who is rapidly falling into incurable consumption. The disease is breaking out in nearly every branch of the imperial family. The beautiful daughter of the Prince Dolgorouki, the Czar Alexander's morganatic wife, is also developing consumption. This girl recently married a brother of Countess Torby, who lives in England with her morganatic husband, the Grand Duke Michael.

People outside of Russia cannot comprehend the eagerness of the Russians for an heir to the throne, as no woman can reign in Russia while the male line holds out. One powerful reason for wishing a son born to the Czar is to have a peaceful succession. It is feared that the Czar's rather frail brother, now heir presumptive, may not live long, and that if Nicholas passes away without an heir the empire may be rent by strife between his four uncles for the throne.

The Russian church authorities, who have power to divorce, and who suspect that the Czarina's enforced conversion to their so-called orthodox church was not sincere, are said to be pressing the "auto-criticism of all the Russians" to put her away. The Czarina's lot is made still unhappier by numerous courtiers whose enmity she has aroused. Being the daughter of Queen Victoria's favorite daughter, Alice, she has inherited or acquired a good many of her grandmother's ideas about propriety and reform.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied directly to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them. It gives back the best sense of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiment should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 50 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

Breadful Croup

Croup attacks a child without warning and needs immediate, prompt attention, or it may prove serious—even fatal. If you notice any symptoms of croup, give baby a small dose of

D. Bull's Cough Syrup

It will relieve it instantly and cure it in a night. No danger from coughing after you have given baby one or two doses. Every mother should keep a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the house to be prepared for sudden attacks of croup. Thousands of letters are received from grateful mothers, who say their babies' lives have been saved by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES. Be careful and see that you get the genuine. Do not let an unscrupulous dealer sell you some cheap preparation that he says is "just as good as Dr. Bull's." He is thinking of his own pocket, not of the health of your baby. See that the "BULL'S HEAD" is on the package, then you know it is the genuine. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is prescribed by all doctors and used in leading hospitals exclusively. Large bottles 50¢, all druggists, 25¢.

"THE ONE THAT CURES." SMALL DOSE. PLEASANT TO TAKE.

BREAD.

THE CLEAN BAKERY

ALEXANDRIA STEAM BAKERY.

GIRL STABS A LONG-LOST SISTER.—A somewhat remarkable story now interests Paris. A few days ago Louise Lopez met her lover with another girl on her arm and in a fit of jealousy attacked her several times. Her sweetheart cleared out and the two young women were taken to the lock-up. When they gave their names to the Commissioner it was discovered that they were sisters who had been separated long years. They fell weeping into each other's arms and subsequently discovering from the police records that the young man both admired her and had abandoned her. Fifteen years ago the girl's father and mother decided to live apart, the father taking one daughter, Louise, with him, and the mother taking the other daughter, Claire, with her. From that time the girls had not seen each other until their meeting on the street.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

Try them When you feel dull after eating. When you have no appetite. When you have a bad taste in the mouth. When your liver is torpid. When your bowels are constipated. When you have a headache. When you feel bilious. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and regulate your liver and bowels. For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membrane lining the stomach, expose the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. E. S.
